

Loss or Damage to Your Automobile

The following coverages are optional. These coverages are only with respect to direct and accidental loss of or damage to the insured automobile.

Specified Perils: Provides coverage to the insured automobile against loss or damage from certain specified perils of coverage.

Comprehensive: Includes coverage, to the insured automobile, provided by specified perils, plus includes flying or falling objects, missiles and vandalism.

Collision or Upset: The insured automobile is covered when it is in collision with another object or upsets.

All Perils: The insured automobile is covered for both collision and comprehensive.